

Existing Plumbing (Typical) – Wet Weather

During large rain events, sewage can surcharge in the sanitary sewer system and backup into basement fixtures such as floor drains, toilets, and showers. This is made worse by prohibited clean water connections such as footer tiles / perimeter tiles. These only add to the problem by adding thousands of gallons of clean water to the system.

